MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This complaint of judicial misconduct was filed by [REDACTED] (“complainant”) against the Honorable [REDACTED] (“subject judge”), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 351. The complaint consists of disjointed and largely incoherent accounts of sex trafficking and other misdeeds involving the FBI, local police, and a variety of celebrities and political figures. The only allegations against the subject judge are that he “slanders [the complainant’s] credibility and mentality” and that he is “manipulat[ing]” the complainant’s cases. Attached to the complaint is a copy of an order in which the subject judge dismissed a civil action that the complainant filed.

After conducting an initial review, the chief judge may dismiss a misconduct complaint as to which he concludes: (A) that the claimed conduct, even if it occurred, “is not prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts”; (B) that the complaint “is directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling”; (C) that the complaint is “frivolous,” a term that applies to charges that are wholly unsupported; or (D) that the complaint “lack[s] sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred.” Rule 11(c)(1)(A)-(D), Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings; see 28 U.S.C. § 352(a), (b).

To the extent that this judicial-misconduct complaint challenges the subject judge’s dismissal of the complainant’s civil action, it is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(B). See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). The balance of the complaint is subject to dismissal under Rule 11(c)(1)(C), because no cognizable allegations of misconduct can be discerned from the complaint or supported by the record. See also 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the complaint be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii) & (iii) and Rule 11(c)(1)(B) & (C) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

Chief Judge
